General Comments

The Quality Assurance Monitor (QAM) was on site to conduct a monitoring inspection. Upon arrival, the QAM observed some groups of children playing outdoors, while other groups were indoors engaged in free play activities or enjoying story time with their educator.

During the inspection, the QAM verified the following:
- New staff member files
- Criminal record check, vulnerable sector check and SD checks renewals
- Outdoor play areas
- Administrative records maintained on site
- Child-to-staff ratios
- Supervision practices

The QAM discussed menu documentation with the administrator. The administrator indicated that parents are informed by email whenever changes are made to the menu. The QAM recommended that any menu changes also be documented and posted in the kitchen to ensure the information is readily available when needed.

The ratio is respected during the visit.
