General Comments A monitoring inspection occurred in the afternoon. The children were observed in the indoor environment engaged in a variety of activities that included dancing, reading books, and in open-ended art at the table using paint markers, scissors, markers, and a hole punch. Children were also observed having a snack, with handwashing occurring beforehand. The operator indicated that the children are currently interested in books, art, sensory activities, and Peppa Pig. Positive child guidance techniques were observed. The operator was seen engaging at the children's level, providing appropriate supervision, using encouraging language, offering choices, and assisting children with decision-making. Several forms of documentation were visible throughout all room, including photographs, learning stories and children's artwork. The room was well organized and inviting, offering a varied supply of age-appropriate materials, books, and toys. A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for the posting of the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any orders for compliance. Additional documentation reviewed included incident logs, daily attendance records, daily information sheets, and records of evacuation and monthly fire drills. A conversation with the administrator occurred on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It is recommended that outdoor bins with secure covers be purchased to prevent water from accumulating in toy storage containers.
