| General Comments Monitoring Inspection: Children observed engaged in outdoor play this morning. Some children were playing badminton, and a large group of children were playing on the playground equipment. A wagon with a variety of outdoor play equipment has been added since last inspection. Children can choose from mark making materials, skipping ropes or gross motor games. Children were not observed in the indoor play area during inspection. An inspection of the indoor play area was conducted. The environment was organized, maintained, and contained invitations prepared for when the children arrive indoors. In response to recommendations left by the QA Monitor at last inspection; a variety of documentation that supports the children's current interests and learning is displayed throughout the indoor play area. QA Monitor discussed that preschool children attending the summer program who will be entering school in the fall must continue to be included as a ratio of 1:10 until they begin school in September. Child-to-staff ratio was observed to be met during Monitoring Inspection. |
