General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection was conducted this afternoon. After school, the children stayed and played at their school's playground, until about 3:15 PM. Children arrived back at the after-school facility at around 3:30 PM, where educators surprised them with a Halloween party! Children were observed entering the building, hanging up their coats and bookbags, and washing their hands. Children were observed sitting at tables, awaiting their special Halloween themed surprises. QAM observed the large play area, as well as the 3 smaller play areas. All areas were set up with activities for the children - games, painting, building, arts & crafts, dramatic play, and books. Educators stated that the children are presently interested in hockey, and that they love playing mini sticks. Educators stated that the children are also interested in arts & crafts, and outdoor play. Several forms of documentation were observed - up-to-date learning stories, children's photos and artwork. The Parent Board was observed, and all required documents were posted.
