General Comments
Children provided with choice of materials and activities throughout the learning environment. During today's inspection children were observed engaged in dramatic play, small manipulatives, art, and reading. Educators and parent volunteer observed to be attentive and engaged with children in play and learning. Ensure Extreme Allergy Management Plans (appendix 4) are completed for children who have epi-pens and include a copy with the epi-pen and in the children's files. Plan is in place to ensure compliance with regulation 11(c)(ii). Requirements as per COVID-19 Recovery Phase Guidance document including cleaning, screening, postings, and documentation are in place and being followed. Hand washing observed multiple times during inspection. For Group Logs- rather than completing a new group log each week, add to bottom of page week of for each week, and create a new group log only if a new child joins the group, or a child withdraws.
