General Comments
A renewal inspection occurred today. Children were observed entering the building, washing hands upon arrival and also before snack. The environment (third teacher) was set up and ready for the children to engage. Children were observed painting, playing with blocks, using the sensory bins, playing 'house' in the dramatic play center and in the art area. All invitations were open ended and co-created with the children. The family tree represented children's home and community environment. Documentation displayed represented children's ongoing group work and individual work in progress. All checks were observed and complete. All staff and children's files were observed and complete.
