General Comments Monitoring Inspection: Children and educators observed engaged in a variety of activities this morning including building with blocks, dramatic play, open ended art, stories, fine motor activities, sensory opportunities and exploring invitations set out by the educators. A small group of children in the Fours Room were observed to be exploring tissue paper, tape and scissors as they wrapped wooden blocks like gifts. An educator and a small group of children in the Three/Fours Room were gathered together sharing a story in the Cozy Area. Purposeful planning is evident in each environment through documentation, invitations and materials added to the environment that support the children's current interests (winter, shopping, celebrations, and vehicles). The dramatic play area in the Fours Room has been transformed into a "Hot Chocolate Stand" for the children to explore. Glue sticks to be replenished in the Art Areas. Each child was observed to be greeted and welcomed to childcare by their educators this morning. QA Monitor discussed hand washing routines with administrator as the children did not wash their hands when they arrived for the day and before snack. Hand washing routines were observed during washroom routines. Grilled cheese sandwiches, bananas and milk were served for morning snack. Handwashing routines were observed during washroom routines and before mealtimes. Monthly fire drills are documented. Daily attendance records are accurate and reflect all children present. Child-to-staff ratio was observed to be met during Monitoring Inspection. New staff file (8) review was completed, all required documents are in place.
