General Comments
Monitoring Inspection: Children and educators observed engaged in a variety of activities this morning. The children in Room #4 were observed having snack and exploring the indoor play area. A small group of children were building with Lego, and another group were playing with dolls. Earlier in the morning they had built a solar oven to cook an egg outdoors. The children in Room #5 were observed having a glow in the dark bowling party in the Mini Gym. Monthly fire drills are documented. Daily attendance records are accurate and reflect all children present. Child-to-staff ratio was observed to be met during Monitoring Inspection. New staff file (1) review was completed. One staff file is missing a signed statement; to be added. Incident logs are complete and signed by parent/guardians.
