General Comments

A renewal inspection occurred today. Inspector observed children in both indoor and outdoor environments. Children had cereal and yoghurt for afternoon snack and even helped clean after everyone was done. Allowing children to assist in small tasks allows for independence and finding a sense of self.

General Comments

The environment had purposeful planning evident and educators had each week of activities posted for all to observe. The children were interested in NHL theme and there was planned activity along with fun facts and hockey language to support children's different modes of communication to represent children thinking and understanding.

All checks were complete. Children and staff files were observed and complete.
