General Comments
A renewal inspection occurred today. Children were observed both indoors and outdoors. Group 2 and 3 went for a walk after attendance was taken. Group 1 had snack first which was apples and crackers. Various forms of invitations were set up. Children (as well as educators) were engaged in their learning environments, forming meaningful relationships. Areas were flexible to accommodate children's emerging interests. Furnishings were child-size, comfortable and accessible. Documentation was present within the classrooms that displayed open-ended art projects created and led by the children. Educators had purposely planned activities that took into account each child's strengths, interests and desires. Kitchen had bleach on counter but was corrected during inspection. All staff and a random review of children's files were also verified and complete.
