General Comments Upon my arrival, the children were engaged in some different free-choice activities. There were a variety of art and mark making materials set out for children. There were also cars, blocks, and the educator had music playing. The educator displayed positive child guidance techniques such as time warnings, speaking respectfully to the children and getting down to their level. All required postings were displayed on the bulletin board. There was a current newsletter posted as well as framed photos of the children throughout the room. Please ensure that each child's hook is labelled with their name. Children went outdoors before lunch time and the educator allowed for sufficient time for the children to dress independently and warmly ensuring that indoor shoes were changed and hats and mittens were put on.
