General Comments

Licensing staff arrived at the licensed facility on June 14th, 2022 to conduct a follow-up visit.

General Comments

There were 20 children and three staff present on the day of the follow-up inspection visit.

The children were engaging in a variety of activities on the afternoon of the follow- inspection visit.

Some of the activities were: magnetic block building, fort building, using a wagon and some blankets and another activity that the children were engaged in was a craft activity using crayons and scraps of paper.

The educators were heard using positive child guidance and redirection strategies while interacting with the children.
