General Comments
The gate to the infant playground latches properly and is secure. The facility has been painted and documentation and photos are displayed along with recent artwork created by the children. Photo routines are displayed in many rooms and educators have it low enough on the wall for children to see it. Family photos are on the walls in many of the rooms as well. Documentation is being displayed behind plexiglass frames so children can view it and the learning stories and photos do not become damaged. New casual staff have been hired and files contained all required documents.
