General Comments
The infants were playing with sand dough this morning. The room is filled with visuals such as a daily schedule, children's photos and family photos. There is a large space for gross motor movement and children enjoyed moving around and accessing the resources themselves. Children went outside this morning. Educators were down at the child's level playing in the snow. Children were smiling and exploring the environment and educators encouraged their exploration. There were many runny noses but educators were vigilant with this. Documentation is evident throughout the centre. Child and staff files were reviewed today, files are organized. Ensure new staff read operator's manual and sign their understanding.
