General Comments

There was a smaller group today due to other school related activities. Children were engaged in creating with clay and playing a game of chess and Uno. The space has a variety of resources throughout the room. The schedule for the day was posted on the whiteboard and educators gave children several reminders for transitioning. Children washed their hands before snack which was toast with jam or butter, oranges and fruit smoothies.

Some behavior concerns were observed, and educators spoke kindly to the children at all times and reminded them of appropriate behavior. The educators engaged in a discussion about Halloween costumes during snack time and a suggestion was made to try to sit and eat with the children each day as this may reduce behaviors during this period of the day.

The children went outside to play on the playground around 3 pm with each of the educators joining a different group or child.
