General Comments
Children were coming inside for morning snack when licensing staff arrived. Hands were washed before they had their snack. The morning snack was apple sauce and a half a slice of whole wheat bread. Once snack was over the children went back outside. The infants stayed inside, where the educators were observed singing songs and sitting on the floor playing with the children. The two-year old group were observed playing in the sandbox and driving the little tykes cars around. The three- and four-year-old children were exploring in the forest area. They were observed digging in the dirt, climbing on logs and building a fort. The educators had a table set up to make tie-dye t-shirts and socks. The afterschool children observed playing on the swings and in the sand pile. They also were able to tie-dye socks as well. Children were offered water numerous times while outside. Children were served lunch, which consisted of submarine sandwiches, dill pickles and water. After lunch children had nap time while the older children participated in quiet activities.
