General Comments Licensing Staff arrived at the Facility to conduct a Monitoring Inspection. In the main entrance the children's personal belongings were stored neatly in cubbies. The area is decorated for Easter with bunnies, eggs and a Happy Easter banner which was hung above the cubbies. Current learning stories, pictures of the children and small whiteboards with messages to families were also observed in the entrance. Downstairs in the 2-year-old-class, the children were finishing up morning snack. The children who had finished eating were getting ready to go play outside. The Educators sat with the children, offering assistance with getting boots on and zipping up jackets. Once several children had their outdoor gear on, one Educator took them outside while the other Educator stayed inside and helped the rest of the group get dressed for outside. The children in the 3-year-old-class and 4-year-old class were also preparing for outdoor play time. The transition outside was smooth. There was a variety of play materials available to the children in the outdoor play environment. A large wooden box was observed at the back of the playground. Inside the box there were trucks, bowls, buckets and shovels, utensils, all in good condition. Throughout the morning the children played in the mud kitchen area, making soup with sand and water. Using a variety of shovels, scoops and small containers the children worked together to collect natural elements to add to their soup which was in a large mixing bowl. Others were observed riding around on trikes, going down the slide and playing catch with one of the Educators. The transition back inside for lunch was smooth. In the 4-year-old class, the Educator sat with the group and read " She'll Be Coming Round the Mountain". The Educator sang the story to the children first and then read the story as they waited for the 3's to finish washing their hands. Proper hand washing was observed and the Educator heated up lunches before the children sat together to eat. Cots were set up and napping materials such as blankets were set out while the children ate. Only positive child guidance was observed during today's Monitoring Inspection. The Educators were observed encouraging independence with the children and praising the children for their accomplishments. The Educators were actively engaged with the children this morning, running around outside together and playing catch with a ball. Staff and child profiles were reviewed today. The files were organized and contained all required
