| General Comments |
| I was screened upon entry to the center. I observed the children practicing Christmas songs, and playing with instruments while listening to music. The children were very engaged in the activities and appeared to enjoy it. After their music they had circle time and snack, and then participated in an obstacle course before saying goodbye to go home. There were sufficient materials and activities for the children. The children seemed to know the routine of the program well, and the program appeared to run smoothly. The educators demonstrated positive child guidance such as gentle reminders, encouragement and positive reinforcement. They also showed patience and kindness to the children. Their group management skills were very good. The child and staff files are in order and all necessary documentation is in place. Everything is in compliance with licencing regulations and I recommend for licencing. |
