Observations: When arriving at the center the two's were into free play, a water station was set up and other children were exploring their indoor environments. The infant's went out for a walk and then played in their outside space. The three's made a giant wreath out of leaves they have picked on their daily walks, and got ready to go play outside. The four's were into painting, building bridges with Legos and reading books. In the little learner's group some were exploring into a sensory tray, while others were into their kitchen cooking and getting pizza ready.
