General Comments

-Late Afternoon visit to the establishment for an unexpected monitoring inspection
-Ratio was respected during the visit
-Guidance of children is done in a respectful and positive way
-Each child has an individual space identified with his/her name to store their personal belongings
-Posted in a visible and prominent place in the facility are the following documents: The license, inspection report, orders for compliance, daily routine, evacuation procedures, name of administrator, name and telephone number of QA Monitor and inspector - Life threatening allergies and when it applies a notice to inform parents of the existence of a communicable disease.
-A First Aid kit and a telephone are always accessible on outings and on the premises
-The operator's relief staff were at the center when arriving, the operator had a medical appointment. Staff files have all required documents.

Observations: When arriving at the center children were eating their snack on the patio, once they were done eating, they stayed outside and went to play in the mud kitchen while others played ball.
