General Comments

- A very quick visit was made at the center to discuss the plan that has been put in place with public health about the water problem into their playground.
- Children's blankets and pillows are now stored separately and identified.
- An on-going medical treatment has been filled by the parent and is now into the child's file.
- Ratio was respected during the visit.

Observation:

During my visit, it was quiet time, some children were sleeping while others were into free play.
