General Comments

- Visit to the learning center for an unexpected monitoring inspection
- Ratio was respected during the visit
- Children's guidance is done in a respectful and positive way
- Posted in a visible and prominent place in the facility are the following documents: The licence, inspection report, orders for compliance, daily routine, evacuation procedures, name of administrator, name and telephone number of QA Monitor and inspector Life threatening allergies and a notice to inform parents of the existence of a communicable disease.
- Indoor play area is maintained safe and clean
- Indoor play area materials and equipment are easily accessible, varied and in sufficient quantity for all children present
- Outdoor play occurs for at least one hour in each four-hour block of time when the majority of children receiving services are in attendance - weather permitting
- Daily incident log is maintained; parent of the child is informed of reportable incident as soon as possible and signs the incident report which are kept in the child's file
- The gateway to the fenced outdoor space is well maintained, snow or ice does not prevent the door from closing.
- Centre has the proper number of functioning and available toilets and sinks, one potty chair or training seat is provided, and a steps or platforms are provided to allow children to reach regular sized toilets or sinks.

Observations: When arriving at the center children were exploring with dinosaurs, play doh into the thought tray, some were playing house in the cozy corner, reading books and sharing with one another about what they were reading, the children invited the educator to join their group and read a story to them, which she did.
