General Comments

- Visit to the center for an unexpected monitoring inspection
- Ratio was respected during the visit
- Posted in a visible and prominent place in the facility are the following documents: The license, inspection report, orders for compliance, daily routine, evacuation procedures, name of administrator, name and telephone number of QA Monitor and Inspector Life-threatening allergies and a notice to inform parents of the existence of a communicable disease.
- Children's guidance is done in a respectful and positive way
- No allergies at this moment, but it is posted on the parent board.
- Drinking water is provided throughout the day
- Food brought from home is labeled with the child's name and refrigerated or has an ice pack as required
- A first-aid kit and a phone are always accessible on site and on outings.
- During the visit, no hot beverage was found in the children's indoor and outdoor play area
- The daily activities inspection checklist was given to all educators and strategies were discussed on how to increase literacy within the center.

Observations: When arriving at the center children were in free play, some were doing craft, while others were playing with cars and pretend animals. They add snack and then three different propositions were set up for them to explore more with animals.
