General Comments

-Morning visit to the establishment for an unexpected monitoring inspection
-Ratio was respected during the visit
-Educators facilitate children's learning by engaging in play and asking open-end questions
-It was observed during the visit that children are guided on how to express their feeling and use words when being hurt, angry, frustrated, sad...and the other part involved being shown how to listen and repair their actions.
-Children's indoor play area is safe and clean
-Material and equipment proposed to children in the indoor play area are easily accessible on low, open shelves. It is varied and in sufficient quantity for all children present.
-In the preschool room, evidence of purposeful planning based on children's interest and learning, webbing, invitation, photos and learning stories were posted.
-Posted in the cubbies room is the parent board, all required documents are posted: The license, inspection report, orders for compliance, daily routine, evacuation procedures, name of administrator, name and telephone number of QA Monitor and inspector - Life threatening allergies and when it applies a notice to inform parents of the existence of a communicable disease.

Observations: When arriving at the center children were building a tent with blankets, in the cozy corner. They transitioned into handwashing and getting ready for lunch. After lunch they were planning on getting ready for a nap.
