General Comments
Presented myself to the facility to complete a follow-up inspection. The staff-to-child ratio was respected at the time of the visit.
Some educators have not yet completed the required professional learning hours; however, the few outstanding hours are expected to be completed by the licence expiry date of May 31, 2026. A copy of the professional learning hours record will be submitted to the inspector upon completion.
Upon arrival, children were playing in the outdoor spaces. They subsequently transitioned indoors and washed their hands in preparation for lunch.
