General Comments
Inspector is onsite to complete the renewal inspection. Morning indoor play such as interactive dancing with the children and the educator's, valentine day crafts, sensory play with dry rice, pasta and beans and story time are observed.
Children are also observed eating lunch and naptime. Positive interactions between the educator's and the children are noticed throughout the renewal inspection.
The educators and administrators made a decision keeping the children indoors due to the extreme cold temperatures.
Ratio was respected during the renewal inspection.
