General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this morning. Upstairs - children were observed during snack and free play. Children were observed going on Bear and Dragon hunts! Educators were engaged, talking, laughing, and taking part in imaginary play. Several learning activities were available and accessible for the children, some of which included: building materials, books, music, arts and crafts, and dramatic play materials. Children were observed washing their hands before snack. Children were observed sitting at their tables, eating their snacks, and conversing with their friends and educators. Downstairs - children were observed washing their hands before snack. Children were observed sitting at their tables, eating their snacks, while conversing with their friends and educators. This group was also observed during outdoor play. Children were observed playing in the snow - sliding, playing with Tonka Trucks, collecting ice, and making snow angels. Several learning stories and photos were displayed throughout the facility. A discussion was had with director/administrator regarding infants and the transitioning of infants from the infant room to the 2/3 room. Infants are not permitted to be moved from the infant room, until they are 24 months old.
