General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this morning. Children were observed finishing up their snacks, and then playing outside, on the deck, and in the backyard. Backyard - Children were observed driving cars, playing with Tonka Trucks, climbing, drawing, and reading books. Front Deck - children were observed doing gymnastics, playing with cars & ramp, and playing house. Inside - The younger children are now located on the bottom level of the building and the older children are on the top floor. Both environments contained several well-defined learning / play centers and several forms of documentation. Positive child guidance techniques were observed - educators offering choices, distracting children from potential problems, providing appropriate supervision, and using positive language.
