General Comments
Children were spread out throughout the rooms while the educators would sit with some children and then check in with other groups. Children had painted Christmas ornaments today and the educators had more activities prepared related to winter for the next two weeks. Children were enjoying play in the lego room with a variety of surfaces for building and placing for presentation. There was a very large selection of lego to choose from. The art room was set up for painting today. Children were in other areas playing games, playing with dolls, drawing, building with other materials, and drawing with one another. Educators gave regular reminders to clean up resources when children were done with them. The menu and allergies are posted at the front entryway. Remember to keep a copy of any relief educator's files on site.
