| General Comments |
| Monitoring inspection completed today. |
| Children were provided with a balance of indoor and outdoor activities. The indoor environments are purposefully planned with a variety of materials and activities that demonstrate children's current interests and learning. Books are included in all interest centres, providing children with inspiration and extending their learning. Documentation posted highlights individual and group learning and creates a sense of belonging for children as they see themselves in their environment and can revisit their learning. |
| Please update contact information for QA Monitor (Phone number) and Inspector/ Investigator (name and phone number). |
