General Comments

A renewal inspection occurred today. Children were observed both indoors and outdoors. A fire drill was completed today at renewal. All staff followed proper fire escape plan. Children ate macaroni and hamburger for lunch. Lunch provided also supported special dietary considerations (noodles without sauce). Various forms of invitations were set up, including but not limited to a large, displayed canvas with opened ended art that children add to each month. Children (as well as educators) were engaged in their learning environments, forming meaningful relationships. Areas were flexible to accommodate children's emerging interests. Furnishings were child-size, comfortable and accessible. Documentation was present within the classrooms that displayed open-ended art projects created and led by the children. Educators had purposely planned activities that took into account each child's strengths, interests and desires. All checks were complete. All staff and a random review of children's files were also verified and complete.
