General Comments
When I arrived, the children were outside. Some were on the playground; others were playing basketball and soccer. The staff were engaged with the children. Positive child guidance was observed when a staff member was heard complementing the children while they were playing basketball or when they were talking to some children about respecting others and their words. The inside space is set up in the gym. There is different materials and stations set up for the children. Materials include different types of blocks, a kitchen with kitchen accessories, plastic dinosaurs, materials for arts and crafts and also games and books. The children came back inside, they played with materials of their choice. There is also a special activity set up for them for after snack. Everything is in compliance; I recommend for renewal.
