Order for Compliance	Regulation	Date to be corrected	Date corrected
48(4) If an infant is receiving services at a licensed facility, the operator shall (c) supervise an infant while he or she eats or drinks.	48(4)(c)	Jun 27, 2024	Jun 27, 2024
Comments: Deficiency is now compliant The operator was observed setting up sleep arrangements while children were eating their lunch. Licensing staff discussed this with operator and advised that a new routine would need to be established as infants are to be supervised at all times while eating and drinking.

General Comments
Regular monitoring inspection was performed on this date. Upon arrival of licensing staff, children were in the outdoor play area and engaged with the mud kitchen and washing toys in soapy water. The children also enjoyed using art materials at the art easel and chalk on the patio. The operator modeled appropriate behaviour for the children when they had disagreements and helped them express themselves verbally. The indoor play space was clean and well organized. The children had an appropriate amount of materials and activities to engage with. Documentation of learning was visible throughout the home. Children have been learning about the robin's nest outside the home, bones and wordless picture books. The home also had visuals posted for the children. Positive behaviour guidance was observed at all times throughout the inspection. Please correct the contact information for the Quality Assurance Monitor which contained a spelling error leading to the wrong email being posted. The Quality Assurance Monitor Jenelle Hanscom may be contacted at Telephone: 506-429-2102 Email: jenelle.hanscom@gnb.ca
