General Comments

Quality Assurance Monitor arrived for today's monitoring inspection as children were arriving off of the Go-Go bus from school. Observed one educator getting off the bus first, then the children, and another leader at the end of the line. Observed educator's performing a head count before heading to the outside play space to play.

While outside, educator brought out a bin full of snowshoes for the children to use in the fresh snow. Observed all educators helping children put on their snowshoes.

Educators were observed constantly moving around the outside play space to ensure proper supervision of the children while they were playing.

Observed educators taking children inside for bathroom breaks when need be. Ratio was always maintained for the group left outside and those inside for bathroom break.

Observed educators working together with the children to build a snowman.

Outside play material bag was not brought originally brought out when children were outside, observed educator going in to get it at time of inspection.

Observed educator's ensuring children washed their hands when everyone came in from outside before snack and free choice time.

Observed an educator sitting down and eating their snack with the children. They were observed actively engaging in conversation with the children during snack time, creating a home-like environment for the children.

All staff files observed today were well organized and found to be in compliance with Licensing Regulations.
