General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection occurred July 4, 2025.

Children were observed during indoor free play.

Educators stated that the children are presently very interested in card games, being active in the gym, reading books, imaginary café play, Lego building, and drawing with chalk on the pavement. Educators were observed using positive language and offering gentle reminders to support children's engagement and self-regulation. Educators played an active role in children's activities throughout the observation.

The daily incident log is maintained, and monthly emergency evacuations are completed as required. The daily routine is posted, and evacuation procedures are clearly displayed in a prominent location. Life-threatening allergies are posted and accessible to staff.

Books selected for the environment reflect the children's current interests, and children's artwork is displayed throughout the space. The facility had a varied supply of appropriate equipment, materials, books, and toys available to support learning and play. Drinking water is provided throughout the day. Outdoor stationary equipment is surrounded by protective surfacing of appropriate depth. Daily activities are purposefully planned to reflect the interests of the children.
