General Comments

Inspector is onsite to complete the renewal inspection. As there is no school, the children are attending the center for the full day. In the morning, the inspector observes the children engaging in free play indoors — some are drawing, others are playing board games, and a few are dressed in Spider-Man costumes. Before lunch the educator animated an indoor parachute game that the children actively participated and enjoyed. Inspector also observed lunchtime.

The educator explains that the children were invited to bring their favorite board games from home to share with other children, and a game of hide-and-seek is also planned for later in the day if it continues to rain.

The ratio is respected throughout the renewal inspection.
