General Comments

- Visit done at the establishment in the morning for a monitoring inspection.
- The ratio was respected during the visit.
- During the visit positive child guidance was witnessed. The educators are respectful to each child's rhythm and attentive to their needs.
- Evidence of purposeful planning based on children's interest and learning, family photos and learning stories were posted. Rooms are inviting and very welcoming, zones have been created with the children's interest in mind.
- All required information and documents are in each staff member's file. The files are accessible and locked in a filing cabinet.
- A copy of each educator's qualification certificates are retained on site in each staff member's file.
- The indoor space provides a large variety of material for children to explore, create and play. The space is safe, and the material is well maintained.
- Outdoor play occurs daily for one hour in each four-hour block of time. Rest periods are respected.
- Observations:
 Infant room: The educators were singing with the children during free play. All children had lunch and naptime.
 2-year-old room: free play, lunch and nap.
 3-year-old room: handwashing, lunch and naptime
 4-year-old room: the children were participating in a motricity activity. Some children were playing with loose parts, drawing, creating with clay and cutting paper.
- Discussions with the educators on observation and documentation.
