General Comments A Monitoring Inspection occurred this afternoon on June 5, 2024. During the visit, children were observed engaging in indoor free play. The educators noted that the children are currently very interested in the Stanley Cup Finals, building mini hockey sticks out of cardboard, dressing up in costumes, and colouring. Throughout the inspection, educators were seen using positive language and providing gentle reminders, creating a supportive environment. The facility maintains all required records and documents for a year, ensuring compliance with regulations. Parents of children present at the center are allowed to enter at any time, fostering an open and welcoming atmosphere. Important documents, such as the license, current inspection report, monitoring reports, and orders for compliance, are posted in a clearly visible and prominent location. Additionally, the daily routine is posted in each room, contributing to a structured environment. The rooms are well-organized and inviting, with materials set up to encourage play. Books reflecting the children's interests are available, and the facility boasts a varied supply of appropriate equipment, materials, books, and toys. Well-defined learning and play areas were observed, and several pieces of children's artwork were displayed throughout the facility, showcasing their creativity and achievements. The curriculum offers opportunities for both individual and group experiences, with various forms of literacy present in the indoor environment. Multiple forms of documentation were observed throughout the facility, indicating a comprehensive approach to monitoring and enhancing the children's learning and development.
