General Comments
Monitoring Inspection:  QA Monitor conducted an inspection this afternoon to follow up on orders left at last visit, concerning rodent droppings within the after-school program. Staff have reported that there have been improvements in rodent droppings since the pest control team has been on site. QA Monitor did not observe any droppings during inspection today. QA Monitor reminded staff to reach out for support if the problem worsens in the future.  Children were observed at arrival and during snack time today. Trail mix and clementines were served for snack.
