General Comments The inspector is on site to conduct the renewal inspection. Upon the inspector's arrival, the children were participating in an outing at Rotary Park. The inspector observed the children returning from the outing and reviewed the signed parental consent forms authorizing their participation. The inspector observes indoor free play. A discussion is held with the administrator regarding the diaper-changing procedure. The diaper-changing procedure must be posted in the diaper changing area to ensure staff have access to the required information. The administrator printed and posted the procedure. The ratio is respected during the inspection.
