General Comments

- Mid-morning visit to the establishment for an unexpected monitoring inspection
- Ratio was respected during the visit
- Minor incident log is maintained, and signed by the parent
- Major incident reports are signed by the parents, and a copy is given to the parent. The original report is maintained in the child's file
- In all rooms, evidence of purposeful planning based on children's interest and learning, webbing, invitation, photos and learning stories were posted.
- Portfolio which highlights children's learning and development are accessible (on top of cubbies), and available to children and families daily. It creates opportunities for children to revisit, explore their learning.
- Daily routine in the center includes; Outdoor play time at least once every 4-hour blocks time when the weather is permitting. Meal and snacks are served at the recognized hours and a daily rest period that meets the children's needs.
- During the visit, it was observed that all educators are engaged with children at their level providing support and having conversations. Open-end questions are asked and guidance is given in a respectful and kind way
- Each child has a cot in good repair, it is disinfected at the end of each nap
- Staff confirms that blankets are washed weekly by staff by the parents and sheets are washed by staff
- The diaper changing stations are found in the washrooms on the first floor and the basement between infant's room and preschool rooms; individual space is provided for diapers and changing necessities. The changing table is equipped with a safety strap and covered with a non-absorbent layer; it is separated from the food preparation and is located one meter from a sink and children are always supervised during diaper changing.
- No hot beverage was found during the visit, but a kind reminder was given to educators that hot beverages must be kept in a sealed cup to be permitted in areas where children are present.
- A first-aid kit and a telephone are available on-site, as well as during excursions outside of the daycare premises.
- Changes to the legislation were discussed with the operator

Observations: When arriving at the center all children were getting ready for lunch, diapers were changed and everybody then transitioned to nap time.
