General Comments

- Visit to the facility for a regular spot check
- Ratio was respected during the visit
- Operator is notified by the parent the reason why the child is absent, whether it's sickness or another reason
- When a child who becomes ill, he/she is supervised and separated from the other children. That child is to be picked up within one hour of notification to parents.
- Management of potential illness forms are completed as required, discussion and explanation with the operator on appendix 11 & 12 in the operator's manual.
- Parents are advised when a child has a communicable disease or illness, center does use the notice of illness form (appendix 13, in the operator's manual)
- Operator confirms that she gives to all parents the appendix 14-Managing illness in ELC facilities- parent's/guardian's role.
- During the visit, the outdoor play area is maintained safe and free of hazard
- When going outside the operator is mostly using the public park that is close to her home, the children bring their sleigh and they also play on the structures, we talk about snow not being a protective surface, operator was aware of it.
- We talked about taking the playpen away and bring in a little cot bed in for the one napper, operator will make the change in the days to come.
- A complete first-aid kit and a phone are always accessible on site and on outings.
- No hot beverage was found in the children's indoor and outdoor play area
- Each child has an easily accessible space for personal belongings, which is labeled with the name of the child and used only for the intended child.
- Learning stories posted highlights children's recent learning and interests.
- Children's guidance is done in a respectful and positive way
- The administrator has a valid first aid certificate and a valid CPR certificate
- Operator has their ECE certificate

Observations: Children were proud to show me their new playroom, some were into car will others played with the cash register and did their shopping. The new playroom gives children lots of opportunities to play and explore.
