General Comments
On the afternoon of the monitoring inspection, children went on a field trip to the playground at Park Street School. When preparing to leave on the bus, children had time to use the washroom and get dressed in coats, mitts, hats, and boots. Children were also reminded to bring their water bottles. Staff ensured that each child had a hat on. Head counts were done at the door when children transitioned from the inside of the building to the bus. When returning to the facility, children had snack. The snack cart was available for children to purchase a snack. This is a special part of half day Wednesdays. Child guidance was positive throughout the inspection. Educators displayed patience and spoke to children in a low, kind voice. A returning staff's file was checked and verified. All required documents were included.
