General Comments

The children engaged in water play this afternoon. The educators used the slides for water play by using the hose to wet the slides. After a couple of reminders for going inside, all the children headed in to get changed and get ready for snack. While waiting, one of the educators prepared the snack and played a game of I spy. Today's snack was banana bread with butter and apples. Children had their own water bottles and any extra snacks from home they wanted. After snack, children chose an area to play with friends or on their own while tables and the floor were cleaned up. Children made some requests for some group games they could play after clean-up.
