General Comments A renewal inspection occurred today. Children were observed in their learning environments indoors and out. Documentation was present throughout the facility that was reflective in children's current interests. Props and materials were open-ended, inspiring and were inviting for all engagement of senses. The outdoor area provides natural, real-life experiences for exploration and investigation. All checks were observed and complete. All staff files and a random review of children's files were also reviewed and complete.
