General Comments
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Visit done at the center for a follow-up inspection. - Ratio was respected during visit. - Starting to see zones into classrooms, more material needs to be added so children can be creative either with art, dramatic play, open end material or have a cozy place where they can be by themselves. - Operator, director and educators are having a meeting tonight with the early learning consultant team, support will be requested from them to meet curriculum requirements. - The inspector was made aware of the situation and a follow-up will be made during the annual inspection.
