General Comments

- Morning visit to the center for a monitoring inspection
- Ratio was respected during the visit
- Appendix 21 – Staff handbook template was revised and given to the operator inviting him to make sure that his staffing plan has all relevant and required information's.
- Outdoor play area is maintained safe
- In the outdoor play area children have more than one type of surfacing to play and the material offered is varied and in sufficient quantity for children present
- All children have an easily accessible space to store their personal belongings, which is identified with their name and only use for the intended child.
- Orientation of children is done in a respectful and positive way
- Parent board is posted in the entrance which is a visible and prominent place. All required documents were found on the board.

Observations: When arriving at the center, preschoolers and infants were into free play, and the afterschool were making homemade playdoh. Once their snack was eaten, they went into free play since it was raining outside. Children had lunch and the youngest transitioned into nap time.
