General Comments

Regular monitoring inspection was performed on this date. Children were watching a movie upon arrival of licensing staff. Some children were also close by and engaged with magna tiles and a marble run.

The routine for the day was posted on the white board and showed that the children were playing in the snow on the back hill for the morning, watching a movie in the afternoon and then playing dodgeball in the studio. Snowmen and forts could be seen on the back hill in the first snowfall of the year.

The indoor area reflects the change in season with winter and Christmas materials added into the room. All the materials in the room were well organized

The attendance was reviewed and was up to date. Positive behaviour guidance was observed at all times.
