General Comments

When I arrived, the children were coming off the bus. One group went straight outside the other group came inside. Some children had snacks and others played with the Lego.

The educators were engaged with the children and were speaking to them in a kind and respectful manner. They were heard celebrating accomplishments, telling the kids they did a great job with the Lego structure, they were encouraging the children to clean up before going outside and then praising them for doing so. Educators were also observed speaking to the children at their level and using positive language when interacting with them.

The educators prepare the children for transition and therefore the children transition well from one activity to another.

The classrooms are cleaned and organized. There are various and sufficient materials to meet the children's interest and educational needs.

The playground was inspected and meets all regulations. While outside the educators were observed playing games with the children and engaged in conversation with them.

Everything is in compliance, I recommend for renewal.
