General Comments
When I arrived, the children were inside playing.
Staff were constantly walking around and engaged with the children.
Around 2:10, children were asked to wash their hands and the ones who wanted to have a snack, had a snack. The children were then given choices of activities to do for the afternoon.
Positive child guidance practices were heard such as encouragements, positive reinforcement and gentle reminders when needed. Educators speak to the children in a respectful manner.
The Centre is clean and well organized. Lots of materials of different interests for the children. All the children were occupied and engaged with something in the afternoon.
The playground was inspected and meets regulation.
I recommend for renewal.
